

Building Visited:

Context (external) - How does the building sit within the physical and social context?

Access - Can people get there easily? Can people enter/move around easily?

Connectivity / Legibility (internal) - Is it clear where people should go when they get there? How well do internal spaces connect/relate to each other?

Flexibility - Can the internal and external spaces be used in a number of ways for different user groups and needs?

Security (physical and emotional) - Do people feel safe approaching and inside the building? Can the building be secured effectively?

Resources (Energy, waste management etc) - How effectively does the building use, store energy? Does it create any energy?

Management & maintenance - Is the building easy to manage and maintain?

Identity - Does the building have a clear identity?

Delight – Is the building a great place to be / move through? How do you feel moving around the building?